We welcome RALPH JOHANNSEN into the Catholic Church this Easter

Happy Easter! We wish each other this joyful greeting today - and yet, for Catholics, Easter is so much more than a single celebration. Easter is so important that we cannot celebrate it in one day. To fully celebrate the Easter Season it takes fifty days, or a Pentecost (the Greek word for fifty). And each one of these fifty days, in fact, is Easter. That is why the Church speaks of the Sundays of Easter, rather than the Sundays after Easter.

During this fifty-day Alleluia we celebrate Jesus' resurrection from the dead, his eternal and everlasting victory over death, and the gift of salvation poured out upon the world. The Catechism of the Catholic Church reminds us, "The Resurrection of Jesus is the crowning truth of our faith." The heart of our identity as Christians is this belief that God has radically changed the universe in the birth, life, passion, death, and resurrection of Jesus.

Pope Francis says Christ's resurrection means "that the love of God is stronger than evil and death itself; it means that the love of God can transform our lives and let those desert places in our hearts bloom."

Easter is not just a one-time event; it is also an event which happens to us each day, if we are open and connected to the lifesaving reality of who Jesus is in our lives. Truly, then, as we celebrate the Easter season, Jesus' resurrected life becomes our life as well.

Happy Easter,
Fr. Tom

Felices Pascuas! Nos damos este gozoso saludo uno al otro el Domingo de Pascua— aunque, para los Católicos, Pascua es mucho más que una solo día de celebración. Pascua es tan importante que no podemos celebrarla en un solo día. Para celebrar el tiempo de pascua necesitamos cincuenta días, o un Pentecostés (la palabra Griega que significa cincuenta). Y cada uno de estos cincuenta días, en realidad, es Pascua. Esa es la razón por la cual se habla de los domingos de pascua en vez de los domingos después de la Pascua.

Y qué es lo que celebramos durante estos cincuenta días de Aleluya? La resurrección de Jesús de entre los muertos, su eterna victoria sobre la muerte, y el regalo de la salvación derramada sobre el mundo. El catecismo de la Iglesia Católica nos recuerda, "La resurrección de Jesús es la verdad culminante de nuestra fe." El corazón de nuestra identidad cristiana en esta creencia de que Dios ha cambiado radicalmente el universo por el nacimiento, vida, pasión, muerte, y resurrección de Jesús.

Pascua no es un evento de una vez; sino más bien, un evento que pasa en nuestras vidas cada día, si estamos abiertos y conectados a la realidad salvífica de quién es Jesús en nuestras vidas. Verdaderamente, entonces, mientras celebramos el tiempo pascual, la vida resucitada de Jesús también se convierte en nuestra vida.

Felices Pascuas,
Padre Tomás
