My dear friends in Christ,

Our rights as a people of faith continue to be challenged. While we are privileged to live in a country where religious belief and practice without interference or persecution is protected under the U.S. Constitution's First Amendment, the fundamental right of religious freedom continues to face threats at the federal, state, and local levels.

For this reason, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) continues to call for the nationwide observance of a Fortnight for Freedom from June 21 through July 4. The theme this year is Fortnight for Freedom: Witnesses to Freedom, focusing on the lives of people of faith who have borne witness to authentic freedom in Christ.

Culminating on Independence Day, the Fortnight for Freedom provides the opportunity to focus on the freedom of religion we enjoy in the United States, while underscoring the need to defend it. During these 14 days of study, catechesis and public action, I invite you to join me in prayer for our country and its leaders. Visit the diocesan website at dioceseofgrandrapids.org for additional resources.

I also ask you to pray for the protection of religious liberty in the United States and abroad where so many Christians are being forced from their homes and countries by violence, and persecuted or killed for their beliefs. Please take time to reacquaint yourself with the tenets upon which our country was founded, participate in events being held in connection with the Fortnight, pray and advocate for peace, and encourage our government officials to support legislation that reflects Catholic social teaching.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend David J. Walkowiak
Bishop of Grand Rapids

Mis queridos amigos en Cristo,

Nuestros derechos como pueblo de fe siguen siendo cuestionados. Aunque tenemos el privilegio de vivir en un país donde se puede creer y practicar la religión sin interferencia o riesgo de persecución, ya que es un derecho protegido por la primera enmienda de la Constitución de los Estados Unidos, sin embargo, el derecho fundamental de la libertad religiosa sigue enfrentando amenazas tanto a nivel federal como estatal y local.

Por esta razón, la Conferencia Católica de Obispos de los Estados Unidos (USCCB) sigue pidiendo que se observe en todo el país la Quincena por la libertad, desde el día 21 de junio al 4 de julio. El tema de este año: Los Testigos de la Libertad, se concentrará en la vida de personas de fe que han dado testimonio de la auténtica libertad en Cristo.

Culminando el día de la Independencia, la Quincena por la Libertad ofrece la oportunidad de concentrarnos en la libertad de religión de la cual disfrutamos en los Estados Unidos, al tiempo que subraya la necesidad de defenderla. Durante estos 14 días de estudio, catequesis y acción pública, les invito a que me acompañen en oración por nuestro país y sus dirigentes. Visite el sitio web diocesano, dioceseofgrandrapids.org, para obtener recursos adicionales.

También les pido que se mantengan en oración por la protección de la libertad religiosa en los Estados Unidos y en el extranjero, donde tantos cristianos se ven forzados a huir de sus hogares y países por la violencia y son perseguidos o asesinados por sus creencias. Por favor, tómense un momento para volver a reflexionar sobre los principios en los cuales fue fundado nuestro país, participen en los eventos que se celebraran en relación con la quincena, oren y aboguen por la paz y animen a nuestros funcionarios de gobierno para que apoyen una legislación que refleje la enseñanza social católica.

Sinceramente suyo en Cristo,
Reverendísimo David J. Walkowiak
Obispo de Grand Rapids

In Ernest Hemingway's short story "Capital of the World," a Spanish newspaper, El Liberal, carried a poignant story about a father and his son. It went like this: A teen-aged boy, Paco, and his very wealthy father had a falling out, and the young man ran away from home. The father was crushed. After a few days, he realized that the boy was serious, so the father set out to find him. He searched high and low for five months to no avail. Finally, in a last, desperate attempt to find his son, the father put an ad in a Madrid newspaper. The ad read, "Dear Paco, Meet me at the Hotel Montana noon Tuesday. All is forgiven. I love you. Signed, Your Father." On Tuesday, in the office of Hotel Montana, over 800 Pacos showed up, looking for love and forgiveness from their fathers. What a magnet that ad was! Over 800 Pacos!! We all hunger for pardon. We are all "Pacos" yearning to run and find a father who will declare, "All is forgiven." Father's Day reminds us that we need more loving, forgiving fathers.

Blessings to all fathers as you strive to witness Christ's love to your children.

Happy Father's Day, Fr. Tom
